Using your plan and inclusions

To use these Plans, you must buy and activate a TeleChoice SIM card.

Mandatory goods - These Plans do not include a handset. You need a 3G/4G compatible handset to use this service. The device needs to support 3G-850MHz and both 4G 1800MHz and 4G 700MHz banding so that you can get the best service possible.

What's included in your monthly allowance - Your monthly call allowance can be used for standard national calls, SMS and MMS to standard Australian landline and mobile numbers, SMS and MMS as outlined in the table above, voicemail deposits and retrieval, most 13xx and 1800 numbers. Your monthly National Video MMS allowance can be used for National Video MMS as outlined in the table above. Your monthly data allowance can be used to access the internet from your 3G/4G compatible handset.

What's excluded from your monthly allowance - Your Plan does not include any allowance for international calls, international SMS, International Roaming, 1223 directory assist as well as Premium Services, or calls or SMS to the following types of numbers: "19xx", "0055", "1234", "12455" and "12456". You may purchase International Add-Ons and Other Add-ons from us online to enable you to make calls and send SMS to international numbers, and to use extra services such as video calls and video MMS to Australian and international numbers.

Additional Fee Information - For more information about the fees, charges and pricing applicable to your Plan, see <https://www.telechoice.com.au/pricing-plans>

Data: If you have exceeded the Data allowance and exhausted your Data Bank balance, you will not be able to use Data until the start of your next recharge, unless you purchase an optional Data Add-On from us online.

Data Bank: Unused Data will rollover into your Data Bank when you recharge before expiry. You must recharge before or within 2 days of expiry on the same or a higher value plan to maintain your Data Bank. Your Data Bank's limit is outlined in the table above and any Data over that limit will be forfeited. Data Bank Data will only be used once you have exceeded your included data allowance. Any optional Data Add-Ons you purchase will also rollover into your Data Bank. If you do not recharge before or within two days after your credit expiry, you forfeit all Data in your Data Bank.

Data Add-Ons: Purchase an additional 1GB of data for $10 ($0.0098 per MB) 1GB (Gigabyte) = 1,024MB (Megabytes) or 5GB of data for $20 ($0.0042 per MB) 5GB (Gigabyte)=5,120MB (Megabytes) at any time during your credit validity period plan allowance at any one time. Data Add-Ons expire in 30 days and any unused data may be eligible to be banked, otherwise it is forfeited if you do not recharge the base plan within 2 days of expiry.

Other Add-Ons: Purchase any International Call Pack or Value Pack any time during your credit validity period. Add-Ons expire 30 days from date of purchase. Any Add-On balance remaining will be forfeited if you do not recharge your base Plan within 2 days from expiry of the base Plan. Add-Ons can be purchased at any time.

No refund of pre-paid credit: There is no minimum term. You can cancel your plan at any time. Any included call and data value will be forfeited, and you will not be refunded.

Expiry: If you do not recharge before expiry, access to make calls, send SMS and MMS, and use data will immediately cease once your plan has expired. Expiry is 28 days and at 11:59pm AEST.
